RIOT RENEWAL

Negroes of Springfield, Ill., Continue to Flee.

NERVOUS TENSION EXISTS

Progress Is Being Made by the Local Authorities in Their Efforts to Fix the Responsibility for the Late Rioting.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—The local authorities have begun the task of overcoming the handicap on their efforts to fix responsibility for the riot, caused by the failure of the coroner's inquest to hold any one responsible for the death of Scott Burroughs, the negro lynched last Friday night.

The open verdict of the coroner's jury was a blow to the hopes of the state's attorney and other officials who saw in it a confirmation of the opinion that witnesses to the rioting would fail to recognize leaders of the mob when called upon to testify in public. Of the four witnesses upon whom Coroner Woodruff had depended for the success of his first riot inquest, only one appeared on the stand. That witness displayed an unusually poor memory when confronted with incisive questions, and the absence of the other three made the coroner's task little.

Testimony Hard To Get.

This condition existed despite the appeals of the commercial organizations and Governor Deneen that law-abiding citizens volunteer their testimony regarding the riot and its leaders. There was a generous response to the appeals so far as the secret and jury proceedings are concerned, but few persons seem willing to risk the enmity of the lawless element of the community by appearing in the courts as defenders of the strict letter of the law.

The grand jury went ahead with its investigations Thursday, but there was considerable less enthusiasm regarding its work than was displayed a few days ago. The departure of all except two regiments of the state militia caused a renewal of the threats that there would be "something doing" when the soldiers had gone, and this feeling was reflected in the anxiety which was manifest in all circles of the city.

Negroes Stand in Fear.

In fact a renewal of the rioting is expected momentarily and the negroes specially fear that once the mob is started again to power of the state to prevent the most serious trouble. Only the Seventh regiment of infantry and eight troops of the state cavalry are on active duty. The Second, Fifth and Third regiments are in camp, reducing the military force to about one thousand men. Not more than a third of these are on active duty and the decrease in military display and regulation was noticeable.

Sale of Liquor Prohibited.

The regulations of the city officials regarding the early closing of all business houses and the prohibition of the sale of liquors within the city limits are still in force.

Thursday morning was almost devoid of alarms. Some firing was heard in the outlying eastern sections of the city but nervous militiamen were responsible for it. One sentry challenged the shadow of a tree stirred by the wind and shot when it refused to speak, and another fired four times at a pile of refuse which failed to speak.

There were probably half a dozen demands for troops at the various headquarters, but in none of the cases was their presence needed.

Work was resumed at the Tuxhorn mill which had been shut down because of the refusal of the whites and negroes to work together.

Negroes Continue to Leave.

Negro refugees continue to leave the city in increasing numbers. Neighboring villages and hamlets, however, are in many instances refusing the negroes a haven, and most of the negro people who departed were bound for communities at a distance from this place. Many of the negroes collected at the depot for their destination.

STAMPEDED TO JOHNSON.

Minnesota State Convention Nominates Him for Third Term.

Minneapolis, Aug. 21.—The democratic state convention Wednesday afternoon stampeded for Governor Joan A. Johnson and nominated him for reelection with a rush after a remarkable demonstration.

When the roll call of counties was made for nomination, Alkin county yielded to Ramsey county (St. Paul) and Mayor Daniel W. Lawler, of St. Paul, took the platform and at the conclusion of ten words he mentioned the name of John A. Johnson.

One of the wildest demonstrations ever seen in a state convention in Minnesota ensued. Hennepin county (Minneapolis) tore up its standard and started a wild march about the hall. Everybody else seemed to join in.

Some democrats grouped themselves on the stage about the picture of Governor Johnson. Band music added to the pandemonium, and delegates began cheering for Governor Johnson.

This third nomination of Johnson, after sixty-four minutes of spectacular demonstration, was contrary to his wishes. He had repeatedly refused to be a candidate and declared if nominated the campaign would be carried on without a general.

Julius J. Reiter, of Rochester, was nominated for lieutenant governor.

REGULARS GUARD RECRUITS.

Fight Between Two Soldiers Started Talk of Riot.

Atlanta, Aug. 21.—Under command of Lieutenants Bankhead and Osterman, of company M, twenty-five regulars, members of the Seventeenth infantry, armed with twenty rounds of ammunition apiece, guarded eighty recruits of the United States army, bound for the Philippines, from Fort Slocum, N. Y., at the Terminal station, from early Wednesday morning until late at night to prevent further disorder among their number following a fight on the coaches, in which Joseph A. Blake cut and severely wounded F. L. Smith, both recruits.

Following the arrival of the troops from Fort McPherson, there was no further disturbance, though the attaches of the Terminal station had a bad couple of hours before the regulars arrived.

The presence of so many armed soldiers at the Terminal station caused the talk of a riot.

DESERTED WIFE KILLS SELF.

Overcome With Remorse Husband At So Ends His Life.

New York, Aug. 21.—Believing her husband was about to leave her forever, Mrs. Edward H. Hacker committed suicide by shooting herself.

Her husband, who had bade her goodbye after a series of altercations and started from the Hague court apartment house, where they lived, heard the shot and ran back to their flat. Upon beholding the lifeless body of his wife he was overcome with remorse and grief and locking the door of the apartment he picked up the revolver with which she had killed herself and ended his own life by shooting himself three times.

She Grew Weary of Life.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 21.—Leaving a note to the effect that she was weary and tired of life, Mrs. A. J. Abrahams, of Huntsville, Ala., a guest of a local hotel, fired a bullet into her brain and ended her life. The deceased, who came to Asheville three weeks ago, had been in poor health for many years.

Train Wreck in Oklahoma.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 21.—Passenger train No. 12, on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad, running between Little Rock and Kansas City, went into the ditch near H. H. Hines across the line from here in Oklahoma Thursday morning. Thirteen persons are reported injured. No deaths reported so far.

Coast Line Buying Cars.

Baltimore, Aug. 21.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad company has just awarded to the South Baltimore Steel Car and Foundry company a contract for 50 steel underframe box cars. The order involves an expenditure of $100,000.

THE BAYSIDE TRAGEDY

Insanity Plea Will be Urged to Save Haines.

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY

Lawyers Say Both Brothers Were in State of Mental Disturbance at the Time of the Shooting of William E. Annis.

New York, Aug. 21.—After being out twenty-two minutes, a coroner's jury Wednesday night brought in a verdict that William E. Annis, who was killed last Saturday at Bayside Yacht Club, Long Island, came to his death as the result of pistol shot wounds inflicted by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., United States army, aided and abetted by Thornton Jenkins Hains, his brother.

There was a greater crowd than the little court room in the town hall at Flushing, L. I., could hold when the inquest began, and hundreds of men and women awaited the verdict outside, although both the defense and the prosecution did not consider the inquest of much importance, since Captain Hains admits the shooting and there were many witnesses to it.

When the jurymen filed into the room and the foreman announced the verdict there was a demonstration. Coroner Ambler had to rap with his gavel and court officers had to caution the spectators, for an attempt was made to applaud the verdict.

That both Captain Hains and his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, were suffering from some form of emotional insanity will probably be the defense offered in their approaching trial. John F. McIntyre said on this point:

"When I visited the accused men in jail this morning I found that Captain Hains showed evidences of decided mental impairment. His memory is not clear, and he can think only of the destruction of his home. Last May, while Captain Hains was on his way to Manila, his brother, Thornton, began to receive anonymous letters regarding Annis and Mrs. Hains.

"I believe that both brothers were in a state of mental disturbance when the shooting occurred."

WERE GIRLS KIDNAPED?

Police Trying to Fathom Mysterious Disappearance.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 21.—Detectives are trying to penetrate mysteries surrounding the disappearance of Gertrude and Dorothy Behn, daughters of Jacob Behn, one of the wealthiest residents of southern Wisconsin. The girls, aged eleven and fourteen, respectively, have not been seen since their parents left them sitting in a hammock on the lawn at home Monday night. Many people believe the girls were kidnaped and are held for ransom.

Another tangle is the receipt by Mrs. Behn, who is the stepmother of the missing girls, of a note several weeks ago warning her that a plot was on foot to steal the girls.

Members of the household say that Monday night a closed carriage was driven up to the Behn gate. It was declared that a man was heard sharply commanding the girls to enter, and that they obeyed him. The horses were then whipped up and the victims rapidly carried away.

After an unsuccessful search by relatives and local authorities Mr. Behn came to Kenosha and engaged detectives to work on the case.

Met Death in a Well.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 21.—Overcome by the gas and fumes in a well he had entered to clean, George Bell, aged thirty years, met death on McDonald's farm, near here. Being attracted on rumpling the bottom, Bell called to those at the windlass to draw him out, but before he had been hoisted ten feet he was overcome and fell to the bottom. His body stuck in the narrow base of the well, and it was four hours before it was removed. A life tied to his wrists tore loose the left hand. A fellow workman leaped to assist Bell who was overcome and narrowly escaped death.

FIGHT WITH SLEDGE HAMMERS.

Probably Fatal Four-Handed Contest in Blacksmith Shop.

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Keota, Okla., tells of a four-handed fight in a blacksmith shop at that place Wednesday in which two of the participants, Sam Shores, Sr., and Sidney Stockton, received wounds which will probably terminate in their death, and the others, Sam Shores, Jr., and Boss Lafore, were badly injured. The weapons used were heavy sledges and hammers.

The fight originated during the trial of a civil suit before a justice of the peace, whose court room is on a floor above the blacksmith shop, and in which Shores and Stockton were the principals. After fighting their way down the stairway and into the shop, they were joined by Lafore and the younger Shores. Then for ten minutes the fight waged fiercely, several times the men being knocked to the floor by blows of the sledges and for the large part of the time the two elder men fought after each had suffered a broken arm.

Although several hundred spectators gathered they were powerless to end the fight until the men were entirely exhausted.

POLICE SEIZE ART GOODS.

Wealthy Mrs. Gardner Will Have to Pay Customs Duties.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—United States customs officials here have seized the tapestries, paintings and rare pieces of armor, valued at $60,000, the property of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner, of Boston, which were bought abroad for Mrs. Gardner's palace in Back Bay Fens. The goods, the customs officials allege, were brought into this country as the "household goods" of Mrs. Emily Rockwell Crane Chadbourne, of this city, a friend of Mrs. Gardner, on which Mrs. Chadbourne, the government officials say, placed a valuation of $5,000.

An investigation was begun by the customs authorities, and when the real value was discovered a tax of $50,000 was placed on them by Collector of Customs Ames. Fines and penalties for alleged evasion of the customs laws were fixed at $70,000, which has been paid, it is said. However, it is declared that $50,000 additional will have to be paid before possession of the property can be secured.

Killed by Lightning.

Gainesville, Ga., Aug. 21.—Near Lula, in this county, Joe Turner, aged twenty-two years, sleeping with his little brother in a saw mill shack, was instantly killed by lightning, the boy being absolutely unharmed, though sleeping in the same bed at the side of the young man. In a terrific electrical storm which swept all that part of the county, a bolt of lightning struck a tall oak near the building in which the Turners were asleep. From the tree, which was split open, it leaped to the shack, tore a hole through the roof and struck the sleeping man, bursting his head.

Ten Rioters Are Fined.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 21.—Ten of the fourteen men charged with participating in the attack made on the county jail last week by a mob that sought to lynch the negroes, Henry Smith and Brack King, charged with criminal assault on aged Mrs. Powell, were each fined $100 and costs, with sixty days in jail. The others were discharged. All of those convicted appealed, and were bailed.

Uncle Left Him Fortune.

Rome, Ga., Aug. 21.—T. H. Littlejohn, an aged citizen of Floyd county, has fallen heir to a fortune. His uncle and namesake, T. H. Littlejohn, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has just died and being a bachelor, has willed him his entire fortune, consisting of $25,000 in cash and two blocks of buildings in that city, estimated to be worth $100,000. Mr. Littlejohn is fifty-two years of age.

Night Clerk Kills Burglar.

Lake Charles, La., Aug. 21.—While two negroes were endeavoring to break into a drug store at Sulphur, La., F. L. Sherry, the night clerk, opened fire, fatally wounding one of the burglars. The other was captured later.

FLEET IS AT SYDNEY

Whole-Hearted Welcome Given by Her People.

FIRST DAY OF SOJOURN THERE

Admirals and Captains of the Fleet Call Upon Lord Northcote and Sir Henry Rawson—Occasion Given Over to Holiday Making.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 21.—The first day of the sojourn of the American battleships at Sydney has passed, and while there have been comparatively few functions—Friday being set aside for the public reception and the official landing—the spirit of cordiality and whole-hearted welcome which fills the people of this city, has found opportunity for expression in several ways. Numberless harbor craft circled all day long around the white battleships anchored in the bay, and the shores and headlands were crowded until late in the afternoon by the interested spectators.

Thursday morning the admirals of the fleet and the captains of the various battleships came ashore and called officially upon Lord Northcote, the governor general of Australia, and Sir Henry Rawson, the governor of New South Wales.

The American officers were saluted upon landing. Later, the governor returned this official call and was in turn saluted by the American fleet.

Thursday evening Lord Northcote gave a dinner in honor of the American officers. There were present 68 Americans, including the admirals and captains, as well as Sir Henry Rawson, the British Admiral, ministers of the state and of the commonwealth and a number of judges and local naval and military officers of high rank.

As darkness came down the fleet was brilliantly lighted and the city and harbor also were illuminated, but not as completely as they will be later.

The entire population is given over to holiday making. The fleet paymasters drew $500,000 from the Sydney banks.

JOINED IN MAN HUNT.

Citizens of Milton, Fla., in State of Intense Excitement.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 21.—A special from Pensacola, Fla., says: Milton, twenty miles east of Pensacola, is stirred up over the entrance by a negro into three houses there during Tuesday night. In each instance the negro was discovered in the rooms of girl members of the families and did not appear to be bent on robbery.

At one place he was fired upon several times, but was evidently not hit, for within an hour afterwards he was in another house.

As soon as the story became known, business practically ceased in the little town, and all joined in the hunt.

A pack of bloodhounds went from this city, but so many had crossed the trail of the man that the hounds could not follow it.

The hunt is still in progress.

Two Killed in Auto Crash.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 21.—John Gluck, a wealthy Minneapolis brewer, and his wife, were instantly killed at Cottage Wood, Lake Minnetonka, in a collision between their automobile and a train. Mrs. Edward Leblanc, of New York city, a sister of Mrs. Gluck, and her two-year-old daughter received serious injuries.

Shot Policeman by Mistake.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 21.—Patrolman Hask was shot and dangerously wounded at an early hour Thursday morning in the South Nashville terminal yards by Joe Thompson, a railroad watchman. It was a case of mistaken identity.

Mills Close Down.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Evansville, Ind., says that the Evansville cotton mills have closed down owing to the inability to secure raw material. Several hundred employees are idle.

A MANLY STATEMENT FROM A MANLY MAN

Editor Inverness Chronicle: I feel it my duty—a duty I owe my old friends and neighbors as well as a duty I owe my wife and children—to make a full and complete statement of that part of my life which most needs an explanation.

Fifteen years of my life were spent in Florida—at Inverness and Live Oak—the greater part of which time I lived at the former place. For that part of my life I have no excuses to offer. I tried to be a useful and good citizen, and did my whole duty as I saw it.

Before I ever saw Florida I had my troubles and they have weighed heavily upon me.

For several years prior to my going to Florida I had been engaged in the printing business in Missouri and was the editor of a Democratic paper. My father had been more or less in politics, and while I had not been trained in the fine arts of politics, I naturally took to it.

In the spring of 1894 I was a delegate to the Democratic Congressional Convention at Piedmont, Mo., and was made chairman of the committee on credentials. The whole fight of the convention was before the committee on credentials, which was in session from Tuesday until Saturday. Personal differences grew out of this which have never been settled, and never will be, as some of the parties concerned have long since passed to the Great Beyond.

Following this convention accusations were made against some who were members of the credentials committee. One, a lawyer and afterwards a candidate for judicial honors, together with one or two others, including myself, were charged with uttering a false paper.

After the matter had grown to white heat I met one of the parties who had implicated me in the matter and we "had it out." Both of us were worse scared than we were hurt. Next day, I understand, he had an affidavit filed against me, but was afterwards withdrawn. It was three years before I learned it had been withdrawn. That night I left Missouri, and shortly after the man who I had the trouble with moved to Oklahoma and is living there today. I left intending to be absent but a short time—not more than six months. The whole trouble was all over in a month or so, but I had cut myself loose from all communications and did not know of it.

During this time my office was sold at a forced sale, leaving me absolutely nothing to return for in the way of business. Every business interest I had was sold at whatever price it would bring. Every obligation was met in full—some after I moved to Inverness.

I felt that to remain in Missouri at that time would have meant for me persecution as well as prosecution. After I left I was blamed with the entire transaction. Those who knew more of it than I did took advantage of my absence—and I say this in all kindness, because one of them, after the matter was settled, turned out to be a true friend to me. Six months after the trouble the entire matter was cleared up and I could have returned unmolested, but I did not know it. There are not more than twelve persons living in Missouri now who know of the real trouble, and to go into details and furnish names would only bring back some recollections that are not pleasant.

The facts without the particulars are as related above, without color. Since then I have "steered clear" of politics and other troubles as much as possible and hope to keep free from that "disease" the remainder of my life. I have always helped others more than I have myself, and I probably allowed my love for friends in Missouri, and my determination to never betray a friend, lead me too far, but for which I have no apology to make, as I acted in good faith and did what I thought best for myself as well as for others whose interests I guarded as with my life.

Landing in Florida with my wife in the fall of 1894, a few months after the trouble, I assumed the name of "Sherwood"—the very worst mistake I could possibly have made, and no doubt would never have been made had I consulted older and wiser heads; but once made, this mistake seemed hard to correct.

In Florida without friends and without means, I was successful in securing employment, and my good fortunes and my misfortunes are well known to many of your readers. It was our purpose to remain in Florida but a short time, but as the days, months and years passed acquaintances, friendships and business interests bound us to the State until it was almost a life-and-death struggle to leave, though the way had long been clear for my return.

God blessed our home with children, and then we realized that the great mistake made must be corrected for their sake at any cost—even though we would be forced to give up the truest and best friends and neighbors—friends of long years' standing and whose loyalty had been tested when we were overtaken by misfortunes both at Inverness and Live Oak.

One of our children became dangerously ill, and we promised then if God spared his life to make the change for our children's sake if for no other reason. This we have done at a cost of giving up all friends of years' standing—a sacrifice that is indeed hard to make, and one that we never would have made except for our children.

The better and most useful years of my life were spent in Florida, and, while I failed to accumulate any of this world's goods, I hope my efforts and my life there were not barren of at least some good. But be that as it may, I have decided to return to the "Land of Flowers" and within the next few weeks I will again be a citizen of Florida, and I hope to retain the friendship and good will of my old friends. Although I have hundreds of old boyhood friends and relatives here, I prefer to live in Florida and hope to do so the remainder of my life. Very truly,

F. ROSS McCORMACK.

West Plains, Mo., Aug. 17, 1908.

P. S.: I do not deem it best to give names and places for publication. A great many of those who knew anything of my trouble are dead or moved away, but to any who may desire I will have no hesitancy in furnishing any information and give names, places and dates.

MOTHER AND CHILD IT PITIFUL STATE

When They Arrived Here Friday Afternoon From Palatka.

NOW AT HAVEN SANATORIUM

Where Every Attention is Being Given Patient—Letters in Trunk Give Name as Miss Fannie L. Thomas—A Mysterious Case.

An unconscious woman with a sweet little babe of a few months arrived on train No. 40 from the south Friday evening in a serious condition.

Upon investigation it was learned that the party was put upon the train at Palatka and at Rochelle she was able to make the change of cars, but when she gave her ticket to the conductor she fainted and fell in the aisle, since remaining in an unconscious state.

She was unable to tell who she was, or her point of destination, but both ticket and trunk check gave this, and upon arrival here her purse was resorted to and a card bearing the name of Miss Mabel Alice Tylee was found, while her trunk contained letters addressed to Miss Fannie L. Thomas.

The pathetic part of the scene was the sweet little infant that was crying, possibly for the want of nourishment, while the poor mother was in an unconscious state and unaware of her surroundings.

Medical aid was summoned in the person of Dr. E. Lartigue, and he and Rev. B. B. Rogers at once removed the unfortunate pair to the Gainesville Haven Sanatorium, where proper attention could be given both mother and child, the former it is thought being dangerously ill and badly in need of medical aid.

Since writing the above it has been learned that the lady referred to is Mrs. R. A. Thomas, and was en route to this city to meet her husband who is ill with fever at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. W. Thomas, on North Pleasant street.

Mrs. Thomas is still in an unconscious state, but it is thought she will be all right within a short while, when she and the little one will be taken to the home of Mr. Thomas and she will be enabled to assist in nursing back to health her husband, who is unaware that she is at present in the city.

Death of Mr. Wilkins.

Mrs. Robert E. Davis on yesterday received a telegram advising her of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles H. Wilkins of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Wilkins some years ago married Miss Nettie Roux, formerly of this city, and she is well known and has many friends here, her early life having been spent in this city.

Mr. Wilkins, while a young man, was one of the most prominent business men of Norfolk, was a large real estate owner and operator in that city, and was one of the original promoters of Greater Norfolk, which brought about the Jamestown Exposition. He was also prominently identified with banking circles.

The many friends of Mrs. Wilkins here will deeply sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Chaffin to Visit State Fair.

Atlanta, Aug. 21.—E. W. Chaffin, candidate for the presidency of the United States upon the prohibition platform, and nominated recently by the prohibition party of the United States, has accepted an invitation to be present and deliver an address to the prohibitionists in Georgia and others at the state fair to be held in Atlanta, on Saturday, Oct. 19.

OCALA BAND IS TO ACCOMPANY TEAM

Will Play in This City on Next Thursday Afternoon.

THE COMING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Have Strong Aggregation and Expect to Return to the Brick City Victorious—The Band Will Prove a Big Attraction.

News received from Ocala is to effect that the Brick City Band will accompany the Ocala baseball team on their visit here next Thursday when they will again compete with the invincible Oak Hall aggregation.

Advises received assure Manager that he will have a crowd fully equal, if not larger, than the Palatka game, when there were some 1,000 upon the field to witness the contest.

The same strong team that we met up against while in the Brick City will be brought along, and it needless to say the contest will be an interesting one, hence the local fans should prepare their flags and banners and have them ready for the occasion.

The mere fact that the excursionists bring the band with them assures people of a large and enthusiastic attendance from our sister city, as the band there has been organized several years and is considered among the best that can be found in the State.

Be sure that you have no further business for this occasion, as it will be a big holiday for Gainesville and people, and one that will long be remembered, as the Ocala people are coming over on a special train and bring a large crowd with them.

Before Mayor Davis.

Grace Harris was up before his Honor Friday morning, charged with disorderly conduct, and assessed a fine of $5 and costs. There were witnesses for both the city and defense, but the mayor deemed the evidence sufficient and Grace was released to "dig."

Joe Floyd was charged with disorderly conduct, the charge having been made by one of the colored men of the depot, but the mayor deemed the evidence insufficient and he was discharged. He was represented by Attorney E. G. Baxter.

LUMBER ON GROUND FOR WHOLESALERS

A. S. Albright to Begin Erection of the Building at Once.

LOCATED ON T. & J. RAILWAY

Lumber has been placed on the ground for the erection by A. S. Albright of a large and commodious establishment.

The above move has been contemplated for many months, but the decline in business deferred the matter until the present time, when Mr. Albright has again taken the matter up and will push it through to completion, expecting to have the building in readiness within the next thirty days.

Already three carloads of lumber has been placed on the ground, and remainder of the material is expected to be received regularly each week now until the work will have been completed and the building stocked with the goods that it is being built for.

The building will be erected near the T. & J. Ry. tracks, and it is an admirable location for such a business, and one that this city has needed for some time. Besides proving a benefit to the merchants here it will supply a large number of the smaller stores nearby that have heretofore been compelled to send their orders to Jacksonville or elsewhere.

WHITNEY LOSES FOOT.

Was Trying to Board An A. C. L. Engine When it Happened.

Johnnie Whitney of Burnett's Lake is minus a foot, which was cut off at that place Friday.

The accident happened while the young man was attempting to board one of the engines of the A. C. L. at that point while the train was in motion. The young fellow slipped when making his jump, and the right foot went under the wheels of the heavy engine, completely severing the member except for a few strings which held the remaining piece of flesh to the stub.

Medical aid was summoned and everything possible done for the young man, and he is resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

He was well-known in this city and has several relatives and friends residing here.

Off for New Home.

Prof. T. F. McBeath and family, who have made this city their home for the past few years, left Friday for their new place of abode in Columbus, Miss. The Professor and his family will be greatly missed by our people, as they took a deep interest in all church and social matters, while the Professor was considered one of the leading educators of this State and was a boon to the educational interests of this section.

TWO FALSE ALARMS FRIDAY MORNING

Department Responds Very Promptly at 2 and 2:30 O'Clock.

BOXES 73 AND 36 WERE USED

Culprits Should be Caught and Punished to the Fullest Extent of Law, Which is a Fine of Not Less Than Fifty Dollars.

Two false fire alarms were turned in Thursday night between the hours of 2 and 2:30 a. m., when the department responded to the calls with their usual promptness.

The first of these alarms was turned in from Box 73, located near the residence of Col. J. G. Nichols in East Gainesville, and the firemen were upon the scene within a short space of time, only to learn that they were called from their slumbers without any cause.

The second alarm was turned in at 2:30 and summoned the laddies to Box 36, located near the residence of E. E. Cannon, and the boys had scarcely gotten in bed when this alarm was sent in. Of course it was responded to, but found to be, as in the former case, a false alarm.

Besides the danger that the boys are subjected to by being called out at night it is also a public nuisance. There is a special ordinance touching upon the subject and the guilty parties should be apprehended and dealt with to the fullest extent.

While this practice was largely indulged in when the system was first installed, it had abated, and it is to be hoped that this is not again the beginning of false alarms, which in more than one instance have caused the drivers or vehicles to suffer some mishap or damage.

Game at Waldo.

The baseball enthusiasts of Hawthorn and Waldo met on the latter diamond Thursday afternoon, when the former team defeated the Waldo nine by a score of 14 to 7, and it was owing to darkness that the game was called in the seventh inning. Barnett and N. Baker were the battery for Hawthorn, while Prewitt and Paschall handled the interests of Waldo. Henry Baker of this city was summoned over and played on the Hawthorn nine.

A MANLY STATEMENT FROM A MANLY MAN

Editor Inverness Chronicle: I feel it my duty—a duty I owe my old friends and neighbors as well as a duty I owe my wife and children—to make a full and complete statement of that part of my life which most needs an explanation.

Fifteen years of my life were spent in Florida—at Inverness and Live Oak—the greater part of which time I lived at the former place. For that part of my life I have no excuses to offer. I tried to be a useful and good citizen, and did my whole duty as I saw it.

Before I ever saw Florida I had my troubles and they have weighed heavily upon me.

For several years prior to my going to Florida I had been engaged in the printing business in Missouri and was the editor of a Democratic paper. My father had been more or less in politics, and while I had not been trained in the fine arts of politics, I naturally took to it.

In the spring of 1894 I was a delegate to the Democratic Congressional Convention at Piedmont, Mo., and was made chairman of the committee on credentials. The whole fight of the convention was before the committee on credentials, which was in session from Tuesday until Saturday. Personal differences grew out of this which have never been settled, and never will be, as some of the parties concerned have long since passed to the Great Beyond.

Following this convention accusations were made against some who were members of the credentials committee. One, a lawyer and afterwards a candidate for judicial honors, together with one or two others, including myself, were charged with uttering a false paper.

After the matter had grown to white heat I met one of the parties who had implicated me in the matter and we "had it out." Both of us were worse scared than we were hurt. Next day, I understand, he had an affidavit filed against me, but was afterward withdrawn. It was three years before I learned it had been withdrawn. That night I left Missouri, and shortly after the man who I had the trouble with moved to Oklahoma and is living there today. I left intending to be absent but a short time—not more than six months. The whole trouble was all over in a month or so, but I had cut myself loose from all communications and did not know of it.

During this time my office was sold at a forced sale, leaving me absolutely nothing to return for in the way of business. Every business interest I had was sold at whatever price it would bring. Every obligation was met in full—some after I moved to Inverness.

I felt that to remain in Missouri at that time would have meant for me persecution as well as prosecution. After I left I was blamed with the entire transaction. Those who knew more of it than I did took advantage of my absence—and I say this in all kindness, because one of them, after the matter was settled, turned out to be a true friend to me. Six months after the trouble the entire matter was cleared up and I could have returned unmolested, but I did not know it. There are not more than twelve persons living in Missouri now who know of the real trouble, and to go into details and furnish names would only bring back some recollections that are not pleasant.

The facts without the particulars are as related above, without color. Since then I have "steered clear" of politics and other troubles as much as possible and hope to keep free from that "disease" the remainder of my life. I have always helped others more than I have myself, and I probably allowed my love for friends in Missouri, and my determination to never betray a friend, lead me too far, but for which I have no apology to make, as I acted in good faith and did what I thought best for myself as well as for others whose interests I guarded as with my life.

Landing in Florida with my wife in the fall of 1894, a few months after the trouble, I assumed the name of "Sherwood"—the very worst mistake I could possibly have made, and no doubt would never have been made had I consulted older and wiser heads; but once made, this mistake seemed hard to correct.

In Florida without friends and without means, I was successful in securing employment, and my good fortunes and my misfortunes are well known to many of your readers. It was our purpose to remain in Florida but a short time, but as the days, months and years passed acquaintances, friendships and business interests bound us to the State until it was almost a life-and-death struggle to leave, though the way had long been clear for my return.

God blessed our home with children, and then we realized that the great mistake made must be corrected for their sake at any cost—even though we would be forced to give up the truest and best friends and neighbors—friends of long years' standing and whose loyalty had been tested when we were overtaken by misfortunes both at Inverness and Live Oak.

One of our children became dangerously ill, and we promised then if God spared his life to make the change for our children's sake if for no other reason. This we have done at a cost of giving up all friends of years' standing—a sacrifice that is indeed hard to make, and one that we never would have made except for our children.

The better and most useful years of my life were spent in Florida, and, while I failed to accumulate any of this world's goods, I hope my efforts and my life there were not barren of at least some good. But be that as it may, I have decided to return to the "Land of Flowers" and within the next few weeks I will again be a citizen of Florida, and I hope to retain the friendship and good will of my old friends. Although I have hundreds of old boyhood friends and relatives here, I prefer to live in Florida and hope to do so the remainder of my life. Very truly,

F. ROSS McCORMACK.

West Plains, Mo., Aug. 17, 1908.

P. S.: I do not deem it best to give names and places for publication. A great many of those who knew anything of my trouble are dead or moved away, but to any who may desire I will have no hesitancy in furnishing any information and give names, places and dates.

When They Arrived Here Friday Afternoon From Palatka.

NOW AT HAVEN SANATORIUM

Where Every Attention is Being Given Patient—Letters in Trunk Give Name as Miss Fannie L. Thomas—A Mysterious Case.

An unconscious woman with a sweet little babe of a few months arrived on train No. 40 from the south Friday evening in a serious condition.

Upon investigation it was learned that the party was put upon the train at Palatka and at Rochelle she was able to make the change of cars, but when she gave her ticket to the conductor she fainted and fell in the aisle, since remaining in an unconscious state.

She was unable to tell who she was, or her point of destination, but both ticket and trunk check gave this, and upon arrival here her purse was resorted to and a card bearing the name of Miss Mabel-Alice-Tylee was found, while her trunk contained letters addressed to Miss Fannie L. Thomas.

The pathetic part of the scene was the sweet little infant that was crying, possibly for the want of nourishment, while the poor mother was in an unconscious state and unaware of her surroundings.

Medical aid was summoned in the person of Dr. E. Lartigue, and he and Rev. S. B. Rogers at once removed the unfortunate pair to the Gainesville Haven Sanatorium, where proper attention could be given both mother and child, the former it is thought being dangerously ill and badly in need of medical aid.

Since writing the above it has been learned that the lady referred to is Mrs. R. A. Thomas, and was en route to this city to meet her husband who is ill with fever at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. W. Thomas, on North Pleasant street.

Mrs. Thomas is still in an unconscious state, but it is thought she will be all right within a short while, when she and the little one will be taken to the home of Mr. Thomas and she will be enabled to assist in nursing back to health her husband, who is unaware that she is at present in the city.

Death of Mr. Wilkins.

Mrs. Robert E. Davis on yesterday received a telegram advising her of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles H. Wilkins of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Wilkins some years ago married Miss Nettie Roux, formerly of this city, and she is well known and has many friends here, her early life having been spent in this city.

Mr. Wilkins, while a young man, was one of the most prominent business men of Norfolk, was a large real estate owner and operator in that city, and was one of the original promoters of Greater Norfolk, which brought about the Jamestown Exposition. He was also prominently identified with banking circles.

The many friends of Mrs. Wilkins here will deeply sympathize with her in her bereavement.

Ten Years in Bed.

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys," writes R. A. Gray, J. P. of Oakville, Ind. "It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." J. W. McCollum & Co.

OCALA BAND IS TO ACCOMPANY TEAM

Will Play in This City on Next Thursday Afternoon.

THEY ARE COMING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Have Strong Aggregation and Expect to Return to the Brick City Victorious—The Band Will Prove a Big Attraction.

News received from Ocala is to the effect that the Brick City Band will accompany the Ocala baseball team on their visit here next Thursday, when they will again compete with the invincible Oak Hall aggregation.

Advices received assure Manager Davis that he will have a crowd fully equal, if not larger, than the Palatka game, when there were some 1,000 upon the field to witness the contest.

The same strong team that we met up against while in the Brick City will be brought along, and it needless to say the contest will be an interesting one, hence the local fans should prepare their flags and banners and have them ready for the occasion.

The mere fact that the excursionists will bring the band with them assures people of a large and enthusiastic attendance from our sister city, as the band there has been organized several years and is considered among the best that can be found in the State.

Be sure that you have no further business for this occasion, as it will be a big holiday for Gainesville and people, and one that will long be remembered, as the Ocala people are coming over on a special train and will bring a large crowd with them.

Before Mayor Davis.

Grace Harris was up before him Friday morning, charged with disorderly conduct, and assessed a fine of $5 and costs. There were no witnesses for both the city and the case, but the mayor deemed the evidence sufficient and Grace was released to "dig."

Joe Floyd was charged with disorderly conduct, the charge having been made by one of the colored men of the depot, but the mayor deemed the evidence insufficient and he was discharged. He was represented by Attorney E. G. Baxter.

LUMBER ON GROUND FOR WHOLESALERS

A. S. Albright to Begin Erection of the Building at Once.

LOCATED ON T. & J. RAILWAY

Lumber has been placed on the ground for the erection by A. S. Albright of a large and commodious establishment.

The above move has been contemplated for many months, but the decline in business deferred the matter until the present time, when Mr. Albright has again taken the matter up and will push it through to completion, expecting to have the building in readiness within the next thirty days.

Already three carloads of lumber has been placed on the ground, and remainder of the material is expected to be received regularly each week now until the work will have been completed and the building stocked with the goods that it is being built for.

The building will be erected near the T. & J. Ry. tracks, and it is an admirable location for such a business, and one that this city has needed for some time. Besides providing a benefit to the merchants here it will supply a large number of the smaller stores nearby that have heretofore been compelled to send their orders to Jacksonville or elsewhere.

WHITNEY LOSES FOOT.

Was Trying to Board An A. C. L. Engine When it Happened.

Johnnie Whitney of Burnett's Lake is minus a foot, which was cut off at that place Friday.

The accident happened while the young man was attempting to board one of the engines of the A. C. L. at that point while the train was in motion. The young fellow slipped when making his jump, and the right foot went under the wheels of the heavy engine, completely severing the member except for a few strings which held the remaining piece of flesh to the stub.

Medical aid was summoned and everything possible done for the young man, and he is resting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

He was well-known in this city and has several relatives and friends residing here.

Off for New Home.

Prof. T. F. McBeath and family, who have made this city their home for the past few years, left Friday for their new place of abode in Columbus, Miss. The Professor and his family will be greatly missed by our people, as they took a deep interest in all church and social matters, while the Professor was considered one of the leading educators of this State and was a boon to the educational interests of this section.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

A MANLY CONFESSION.

As will be seen by a letter published elsewhere, J. F. Sherwood, formerly publisher of The Chronicle, was in Florida fifteen years under an assumed name, his real name being Franklyn Ross McCormack. The cause of his being here under an assumed name he tells in a straightforward manner, and has made, rather than lost, friends by this manly confession. In his eagerness to aid friends he was indiscreet enough to violate law, and being pursued by his enemies resorted to flight, and under a wrong name he and his noble wife came to Florida, and here they were loved and respected by all. No man can point to a single dishonorable act of his in the past fifteen years, and without doubt this one that he speaks of, is the only one of his life. A nobler man nor truer friend never lived in Florida. Not one of his former friends throughout the State will think less of him because of this one false step of his life. We hope that he and his excellent family will return to Florida, for a hearty welcome awaits them.—Inverness Chronicle.

As Mr. Sherwood was well known in Gainesville we publish his letter in this issue of The Sun. It was our pleasure to know him quite intimately for a number of years, and we will think as much of him under the name of McCormack as that of Sherwood. He will always be plain "John" to us, however.

RAILWAY MILEAGE DOUBLED.

To say that in the last quarter of a century the mileage of American railways has doubled is telling the least of the remarkable advance of the iron horse. The locomotive itself has quadrupled in numerical force, and that is striking no balance between its pulling power and efficiency today and twenty-five years ago.

In 1882 there were 114,677 miles of railway in operation, and in 1907 there were 229,128, or almost exactly double. Traffic has increased, however, much more rapidly than mileage. The 15,000 locomotives in service in 1882 are contrasted with 58,300 in 1907, and the new locomotives probably average fully double the traffic capacity of the old, says The Engineering News. The 15,000 passenger cars of 1882 became 33,300 in 1907. The increase was less rapid than in the case of the locomotives. This is due to the large relative growth of freight traffic and the diversion of a considerable proportion of the passenger traffic to electric railways.

The 739,000 freight cars of 1882 became 2,084,000 in 1907, and here again capacity per car was certainly doubled. The total miles of track and sidings grew from 141,000 miles in 1882 to 324,000 miles in 1907. In 1882 over half the railway mileage was still laid with iron rails, the total being 74,267 miles, compared with 67,000 miles of steel rails. In 1907 there were only 9,320 miles of iron rails left, which one would suppose must by this time resemble "two streaks of rust."

The one person in the city to whom your want ad. should appeal is doubtless "reading the papers" these days.

Lost something? An ad. in The Sun's classified column may find it.

DISCRIMINATE AGAINST FLORIDA

The New York Packer says: "There is no question but that the blanket rate from California is a big advantage to that State, and to a certain extent a detriment to the Florida producer. For instance, a California shipper can bill a car of oranges to Kansas City. If he does not find a satisfactory market there he can have the car forwarded to Chicago, then to Buffalo, and finally to New York without paying any extra transportation cost. In other words, the rate applying between the Missouri and the Atlantic seaboard is the same, and the shipper is given the privilege of changing the destination of the car so long as it continues in the same general direction.

"On the other hand, the Florida shipper has no such advantage. If he bills a car to Baltimore and decides later to send it further North he has to pay an additional freight rate. In the case of the California shipper a market can be found for the car after it reaches its first destination, or even after it has stopped at two or three markets, while, generally speaking, the Florida shipper must use the market he originally selects for his goods or pay additional freight. The commission's statement that it could not advance the rate to the East on California oranges leaves only one avenue of relief for the Florida shipper, that of securing the same advantage for Florida oranges, but in this instance further difficulties arise from the fact that the California oranges are hauled most of the distance on the original lines, while the Florida haul is divided into several parts. Then, too, the cost of concentrating shipments in California is much less than in Florida, because the transcontinental railroads pass through the principal producing districts. In Florida the oranges are gathered up in small lots, comparatively speaking, and hauled to two or three terminal points, from which trains are made up for the movement to Northern markets.

"The relief given the Florida shippers in the decision announced last week was by no means material, being only 3 or 4 cents per box, which, it is very evident, is not enough of a reduction to either increase the profits of the grower much or result in a large consumption because of any possible lowering of the price to the consumer.

"In several parts of the decision the commission states plainly that the California orange has much the advantage of the Florida orange, so far as transportation service and cost to the principal markets of the country are concerned, but at the same time the commission holds out little hope for a material change in the situation which would help the Florida industry. In spite of the fact that the California orange is hauled nearly twice the distance of the Florida orange, the former enjoys a relative lower rate and several other advantages of consequence. This appears to be one of the problems of transportation which cannot easily be solved, and yet it is plain that the existing conditions work to the detriment of one part of the country. Based on the actual equality of rates, that is, so much per 100 pounds per mile, the Florida orange ought to reach the New York market considerably cheaper than the California orange, yet the reverse is the true condition, and will likely remain so for some time to come."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENY & CO., Sold by druggists, 73c. Toledo, O. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MACHINE FOR BUILDING CEMENT SIDEWALKS.

One of the latest labor-saving devices is a machine that lays and finishes cement sidewalks with remarkable rapidity. It consists of a traveling mold and a winch for pulling the mold ahead. The concrete for the base of the sidewalk is shoveled or dumped into the front part of the mold, and the finishing mortar is shoveled or dumped into the hopper at the middle of the mold. This hopper is so designed that it feeds a thin layer of mortar on to the concrete base as the mold travels forward. Thus a complete and perfect sidewalk is delivered at the rear end of the machine. No skilled finishers are required. No labor is needed to build forms. No men are needed to tamp the concrete. In brief, says Cement Age, New York, the process is simply one of mixing the ingredients and depositing them into the proper part of the traveling mold. The mold does the rest. With a properly organized gang, the mold is kept traveling continuously at the rate of two feet per minute. The shape of the mold is such that the concrete is squeezed both laterally and vertically into a dense block, which, as above stated, requires no ramming. Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the mold is the perfect finish that it gives to the sidewalk. The walk looks as if it had been hand finished with floats.

Some of the State press continue to publish the statement that the Prohibition party, at their State convention held in Gainesville, nominated Hon. John N. C. Stockton for Governor. This erroneous report was called attention to some weeks ago in these columns, but some of the editors appear to have overlooked it. The Prohibitionists made no nomination for Governor—they simply recommended Mr. Stockton as the proper man for temperance people to vote for in the June Democratic primary for Governor, and also recommended Governor Broward for the U. S. Senate. The only nominations the Prohibitionists made were candidates for Presidential electors.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weaker out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

FOR MEN AND WOMEN. Use Big 64 for unnatural discharges, inflammations or irritations of mucous membranes, catarrhs, and all other ailments of the urinary tract. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper by express, prepaid, to $1.00, or 2 bottles $2.00. Please send no money.

HERBINE

The Popular Liver Medicine Will Keep You Well

A GUARANTEED CURE for all diseases produced by TORPID LIVER and IMPURE BLOOD. Do not fill your system with Arsenic, Calomel and Guinine. They act as rank poisons which vitiate the blood, debilitate the system, and leave a trail of bad symptoms which require years to obliterate. HERBINE is purely vegetable and contains no mineral or narcotic poisons, is absolutely harmless and is the simple remedy of nature. It carries off all poison in the system and leaves no injurious effects.

CURED BY HERBINE AFTER OTHER REMEDIES FAILED

Mr. L. A. Hicks, Iredell, Texas, says: "I was sick in bed for eight months with liver trouble, the doctor seemed to do me no good. I was told to try Herbine, and it cured me in a short time. I cannot recommend this wonderful medicine too highly."

OWENS LET OFF LIGHT.

Marshal Only Preferred Charge of Concealed Weapons Against Him.

John Owens, the negro who tried to "do up" Marshal Arnow on Wednesday night, an account of which has already appeared in these columns, was arraigned before Judge Mason Friday.

The Marshal desired to be light upon him, and as a consequence he swore out a warrant only for concealed weapons. The negro was tried upon this charge and plead guilty, whereupon he was fined $100 and costs or six months with the boys in the "gang."

Had Marshal Arnow desired he could have pushed the matter and entered three distinct charges against the darkey, which would have easily given him eighteen months.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.

More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Colored Baptist Church Choir.

Friendship Baptist church choir will render a musical program, interspersed with many good recitations, Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week at Johnson's Hall. The choir will be assisted by Bethel A. E. church choir Monday evening, and Mt. Pleasant M. E. church choir Tuesday evening. Also some of the best local talent. At the close of Tuesday evening's program, there will be a voting contest as to who is the most popular young lady of each of the choruses. All are invited to be present each evening.

Knife Used by Pension Board.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 21.—The state board of pension examiners wielded a vigorous knife this year in dealing with the hordes of applicants who wished to be placed on the pension rolls of the state. After the pruning processes, however, the auditor was authorized to add no less than 574 names to the books to be served in the beginning of the next fiscal quarter, or Oct. 1.—The total number of rejections was 829, or a little more than a third.

Drove Knife Into His Own Breast.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 21.—Oscar Grimes, a negro, in a fight with Mary O'Brien, stabbed the woman and thinking her dead, deliberately drove the knife into his own breast seven times, the heart being penetrated by one of the blows. He was hurried to a hospital, where the surgeons put three stitches in his heart. The negro is still living, and it is believed he will recover.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others get "cranky" at home. It's not disposition, it's the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Hallard's Herbine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50 cents per bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

AUTO. EXPLODES;
TWO BADLY BURNED

Three Others Were Injured When Machine Went "Into Air."

WAS MAKING 30-MILE TIME

When Accident Occurred, and the Occupants Had No Time to Protect Themselves—Auto Was Totally Consumed.

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 21.—Two men were perhaps fatally burned and three others seriously injured by the explosion of an automobile near here on Wednesday. Those seriously injured were Thomas Denman, a wealthy farmer, and Ralph Sear, of Boswell. The others injured were William Coffenburg, Leo Schuessler and Warren Manken, also of Boswell.

The explosion, which was caused by gasoline, occurred while the machine was running at a rate of 30 miles an hour. The men with their clothing ablaze, jumped from the machine, which ran into a fence and was totally destroyed by fire.

The cries of the men attracted the neighboring farmers, who hurried to their assistance.

NEW HALL DEDICATED.

Distinguished Gathering of Prelates of Roman Catholic Church.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Distinguished prelates of the Roman Catholic church of this and other countries gathered at St. Bernard's seminary Thursday for the dedication of the new hall of theology and the celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the episcopate of Bishop Barnard, J. McQuade and the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

The ceremonies began at 10 o'clock when the most Rev. Diomedo Falconio, of Washington, D. C., papal delegate to the United States, dedicated the recently completed addition to St. Bernard's. At the completion of the mass the visitors were taken for a tour of inspection of the building. A dinner was served in the dining room at 1 o'clock, the guests numbering about two hundred and fifty.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water? If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TWO MEN SWAM TO SHORE IN MANACLES

Daring Escape of American Seamen From Battleship New Hampshire.

LEGS WERE ALSO IN IRONS

Men Took Desperate Chances in Order to Have a Night of Revelry on the Bowery in New York City.

New York, Aug. 21.—Two officers from the battleship New Hampshire, arrested in a Chatham Square saloon Wednesday, declared to the police at headquarters that they had swam, manacled, from the ship to the shore in the early hours of Tuesday morning. The men, who gave their names as George H. Hills and George Coons, said they were placed under arrest Tuesday, and the ship's prison being filled, they were trussed up with both legs and wrists in irons, and then placed under guard on deck.

During the night, they declare, the sentry fell asleep and they quietly rolled over to a hatch, crawled through a coal chute in the water and swam ashore. They made at once for the Bowery, where they procured files and rid themselves of their ornaments.

The police arrested the men before they had done celebrating and returned them to the New Hampshire.

Declares Convict a Duke.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 21.—Declaring that Alphonse Gregory, convicted in 1906 of burglary and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in the Missouri state penitentiary, is a duke of the old Bourbon house of France, Father Gretcham, a Parisian priest, in a letter to Val Mason, a local attorney, received here, asks that efforts be made to obtain the convict's pardon in order that he may return to France in time to see his invalid mother before she dies. References are given by Father Gretcham to prove Gregory's connection with the royal family. The letter has been sent to a priest at Jefferson City.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, or "risings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

BURGLARS' BOLD ATTACK ON WOMAN

Was Assaulted While Returning to Her Home at Night.

THOUGHT HOUSE WAS ON FIRE

But When Woman Entered Building Burglars Rushed Upon Her, Inflicting Injuries Which May Prove Serious.

St. Louis, Aug. 21.—Seeing a light on the second floor when she returned to her fashionable home on South Kings Highway boulevard, and believing that the place had caught fire, Mrs. Sophia Dunlop, forty-five years of age, hurried to the upper story to find herself confronted by two burglars. They knocked her down, stabbed her in the right temple and escaped. Her injuries are said to be serious.

Mrs. Dunlop, who is a widow of a former superintendent of the Terminal Railway association, lay unconscious for some moments. When she revived she went to the telephone, called up the police and then fainted.

SCARED INTO FITS

And bawling for help, two foolish persons about to lose their all to fire. Don't pity 'em. They're probably sneered at their neighbors for "paying out" an annual premium on a policy for

FIRE INSURANCE.

Our scared friends are getting their little lesson as they yell. Too late—till next time. How about your insurance? In force? Note the date of your policy, and don't let it lapse. A postal will bring our representative and you lose no time. Be wise today—you may be burned out tomorrow.

Social in North Gainesville.

Thursday evening a delightful surprise party was given Miss Mae Kirby by the young people of North Gainesville. Although the fair hostess was completely surprised, she was equal to the occasion, and with her usual pleasant manner she bid them welcome and soon everyone was having a jolly time playing lively games.

After playing lots of nice games they partook of a light lunch, which was enjoyed by all. They then bade their hostess good night, thanking her for the pleasant evening.

Is the amount of money we have loaned since we opened for business. We have not lost one cent on a bad loan, and have no paper on hand now that could be considered even doubtful. A bank is no safer than its loans, therefore we are very cautious about this feature of our business. If you apply to us for a loan and it is not granted, do not fall out with us; we are using our best judgment for the protection of our depositors, and we think our depositors come before our borrowers in a matter of this nature.
